Notice of Privacy Policy

Maintaining your privacy is important to us. This company wants to assure you that your personal information is kept secure. The nonpublic information that we collect is the information contained in your application and your transactions with this company.

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our clients or former clients to anyone, except as permitted by law. Under the law, the information we collect is provided to Schwab, as the company that performs services for you and services your account. We do not give or sell information about you or your accounts to any other company, individual or group. We maintain physical, administrative and technical procedural safeguards to protect your nonpublic personal information.

You do not need to call or do anything as a result of this notice. It is meant to inform you of our privacy policy. This policy applies to individuals who inquire about and/or obtain services from this company and supersedes all previous notices or statements about our privacy policy. Please retain this copy for your records. If you have any questions, please give us a call.
